November 12, 1976

Dear Mike:

The 1976-77 White House Fellows very much appreciate everything you did to make their session at the CIA possible.

All of us enormously enjoyed the meeting and we were delighted to have an opportunity to meet with a number of the deputy directors to discuss the role and function of the CIA.

Needless to say, the group found the session most stimulating and productive and they were delighted to have the opportunity of meeting with you and other members of the staff.

Thank you again for taking the time to meet with the group and for everything you did in taking care of the necessary arrangements.

Sincerely,

Bruce H. Hasenkamp

Dear George:

The 1976-77 White House Fellows are delighted to learn you will be able to meet with them on Tuesday, November 2, 1976.

Pursuant to our telephone conversation with Mike Malanick, we will plan to be at the CIA at 2:00 p.m. for a briefing on the mission and functions of the Agency; we will then look forward to having you join us at 4:00 p.m. for coffee and further discussions.

In order that the Fellows might be properly prepared for their meeting with you, we would appreciate your office sending us some biographical information and any other materials you think would be helpful.

We look forward to seeing you on November 2.

Dear Bruce:

To confirm conversations with Ms. Janet Colson Caldwell, my colleagues and I would be delighted to meet with the White House Fellows and you on Tuesday, 2 November, beginning at two o'clock in the afternoon. I would propose to have Mr. Paul Walsh, our Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence, along with representatives from other parts of the Agency, brief you on our mission and functions for the first two hours and, then, personally meet with you for about an hour at four o'clock. All of us will be available to answer any questions you may have about our respective roles.

If these arrangements are acceptable or if you have any questions, please get in touch with Mr. Mike Malanick, our Associate Deputy Director for Administration, on [REDACTED]

Dear George:

The seventeen members of the 1976-77 class of White House Fellows, who begin their assignments here on the first of September, were chosen from among 2,864 applicants to serve as special assistants to members of the Cabinet and the President's principal staff. In addition to these full-time responsibilities, the Fellows, as you know, pursue an intensive seminar program designed to provide them with an enlarged awareness of the operations and policy problems of government and to expose them to a wide range of current issues and points of view.

As a significant part of their education, we would be delighted if you could meet with them sometime in September or October. All meetings with the Fellows are off-the-record to encourage the fullest sort of discussion. Usually we would ask you to make some initial comments and then open the meeting for questions and a free exchange of ideas and views. A luncheon or dinner meeting hosted by the Fellows is often, we find, most convenient, but a session at another hour can also be arranged.

For your information, I am enclosing our 1975-76 brochure and a list of the 1976-77 White House Fellows. Our new brochure, that highlights the biographies of the 1976-77 Fellows, is now at press. A copy will be sent to you as soon as we receive it.

I hope it will be possible for you to meet with the 1976-77 White House Fellows, and will look forward to hearing from you. Our telephone number is (202) 653-6263.

Sincerely,

Bruce H. Hasenkamp

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced the appointment of 17 persons as White House Fellows. This is the twelfth group since the creation of the program.

The Fellows were chosen at the culmination of a six-month-long selection process from among 2864 applicants and represent the best of the Nation's rising leadership. They begin their year of service with the Federal Government on September 1.

The White House Fellowship competition this year is the most rigorous since the first year of the program a decade ago. Just under 41,000 requests for applications were filled compared with 28,000 last year; and applications increased from 1,380 in 1974, to 2,307 in 1975, and to 2,864 this year.

Appointed today were:

- Raoul H. Alcala, 35, formerly of Monterey Park, California, Major, U.S. Army, attending the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas;
- Charles A. Ansbacher, 33, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, Conductor and Musical Director, Colorado Springs Symphony Orchestra, Colorado Springs.
- W. Anderson Barnes, 32, of Columbia, Maryland, Senior Development Director and Assistant Vice President, The Rouse Company, Columbia;
- ~~B. Porter Briggs, Jr., 35, of Little Rock, Arkansas, President of Briggs Associates, Little Rock;~~
- David J. Cleary, 34, of Bloomington, Minnesota, Opportunities Assessment Manager, 3M Company, St. Paul;
- Geraldine V. Cox, 32, of Portsmouth, Rhode Island, Technical Coordinator, Environmental Programs, Raytheon Oceanographic & Environmental Services, Portsmouth;
- Marie T. Dias, 33, of Dorchester, Massachusetts, Executive Director, Children's World Day Care Center, Inc., Boston;
- William J. Drummond, 31, formerly of Los Angeles, California, presently Bureau Chief, Los Angeles Times, Jerusalem, Israel;
- Walter M. Fiederowicz, 29, of Ridgefield, Connecticut, attorney, Cummings & Lockwood, Stamford;
- Donald H. Haider, 34, of Evanston, Illinois, Associate Professor of Public Management, Northwestern University, Graduate School of Management, Evanston;
- Gail E. Klapper, 32, of Denver, Colorado, attorney, Davis, Graham & Stubbs, Denver;
- Kai N. Lee, 30, of Seattle, Washington, Assistant Professor of Environmental Studies and Political Science, Institute for Environmental Studies, University of Washington, Seattle;
- Susan E. Magee, 31, of Seattle, Washington, Director, Office of Women's Rights, City of Seattle;
- Mary L. Myers, 30, of Pierre, South Dakota, Director, Division of Human Rights, State of South Dakota, Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, Pierre;

- MORE -

-- Jane G. Pisano, 32, of Washington, D. C., Assistant Professor, School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.;

-- Judy M. Rosenstreich, 32, of Waterbury Center, Vermont, State Representative, State of Vermont, Montpelier;

-- Lynn A. Schenk, 31, of La Jolla, California, attorney, San Diego Gas & Electric Company, San Diego.

The White House Fellowship program was established in 1964 to provide outstanding young Americans with firsthand experience in the process of governing the Nation. It is open to U.S. citizens from all occupations and professions who are no less than 23 and no more than 35 years of age by the commencement of the Fellowship year. (Employees of the Federal Government are not eligible, with the exception of career Armed Forces personnel.)

In addition to their educational assignments with the Vice President, members of the Cabinet, and members of the White House staff, the Fellows participate in an extensive seminar program that typically includes some 300 off-record sessions with top government officials, scholars, journalists, and leaders from various other segments of private life.

Leadership, intellectual and professional ability, and a commitment to community and nation are the broad criteria employed in the selection process.

Applications for the 1977-78 program will be available in August, 1976. Application forms and additional information on the program can be obtained by sending a postal card to the President's Commission on White House Fellowships, Washington, D. C. 20415.
